

Amit Sarin

Actor, Producer, Entrepreneur

*Chief Executive Officer, Roaming Rickshaw films & Blessed films | Partner, Lady
With A Hat Productions*

Amit has had a long and respected association to the Indian television industry for over 20 years where he has worked with the top five major networks and renown production houses including Balaji Telefilms, a company that made him a household name in India through its popular daily soap operas.

Alongside his successful and award-winning acting career, Amit has ventured into his family's real estate business in Varanasi, India, where he owns and runs a chain of heritage hotels. This has lent Amit a dynamic experience to run the business affairs at RRF & BLESSED FILMS, where he also oversees the company's day-to-day operations. Amit's strong business acumen and intuition helped guide him into expanding an entertainment fund across the media spectrum.

As a producer, Amit spearheaded Tiger Heart to put together a package including an A - list star cast, director, production & VFX/ post team.

Amit also executive produced and acted in his most recent Hollywood film Natty Knocks (horror genre), a film by Dwight Little (also director of Tiger Heart). The film is currently in post production and will appear in AFM November 2022.

Amit has won many international laurels and awards as an actor in the soon-to-be-released Hollywood feature film, Between Mountains, in a joint production with his wife Vineesha, who spearheaded the film as producer, writer and director. The film has also won in all other major categories including Best Film, Best Director, Best Cinematographer, Best Editing, Best Music, and others. Between Mountains is expected to release in September 2022 across streaming platforms worldwide.
